SPECIAL PRESENTATION - The Future of the Bluestone Building by Lee Vecchiarelli

1. Lee wants our support to convince the County not to make the building into rental offices.
2. Lee circulated the mission statement, etc., for the proposal for the “Ruby McFarlane Cultural Center for the Arts”. Camille will email them to Becca, and Becca will send them to the board. Stony suggested the name “Bluestone” be preserved in the new name.
3. Linda commented that the County wants to make money from renting the offices, so if we are going to convince the County to do otherwise, we have to show our plan will also bring money into the County (through sales tax, etc.)
4. Lee would be willing to work on grants for on-going efforts.
5. They need a community meeting to show the community support, and need to get the Chamber of Commerce to back this. Looking to hold the meeting early in October on a weeknight.

6. In September, they may have a wine tasting fundraiser for $25/person at the golf course. The golf course will let them use their facility for no cost. It was suggested this should occur after the general community meeting, not before.
